Topic Talk

My Hometown

My hometown is a small town in Afghanistan. It is not too big or too small, just right. I feel safe, happy, and comfortable here.

Places to Visit

In my hometown, there are many places to visit. There is a park with swings and slides where I play with my friends. A small library allows me to borrow books and read stories. There is even a movie theater where I watch the latest films with my family.

People & Shops

People in my hometown are very friendly. Neighbors greet each other with smiles, and everyone helps each other when needed.

Shops and restaurants add to the town's charm. I enjoy going to the ice cream shop to get a scoop of my favorite flavor, and visiting the pizza place with friends.

 I love my hometown. It holds special memories, and I hope I can live here forever.

Grammar Focus

Using "There is / There are"

We use "there is" for one thing and "there are" for more than one.

Examples:

- There is a park in my hometown.
- There are many shops in my town.

پښتو: "There is" د يوه شي لپاره کارېږي، او "There are" د څو شيانو لپاره. مثال:

- زما په ټاټوبي کې يوه پارک دی.

- زما په ښار کې ډېر دوکانونه دي.

دری: از "There is" برای یک چیز و از "There are" برای چند چیز استفاده می‌شود. مثال:

- در شهر زادگاه من یک پارک هست.

- در شهر من چندین دکان وجود دارد.
